Fordwich Place

Fordwich Place is a retirement development of 24 one and two bedroom independent living flats, it has its own private car park at the rear of the property with space for approximately 17 cars.

The development is situated a few minutes' walk from the main railway station and a level 10-minute walk into the town. There is a petrol garage, post office, GP & dentist surgeries close by.

Sandwich is a hidden gem and is one of the most complete and well-preserved medieval towns in Britain. There are a wealth of historic sites and attractions including the historic Town Trail, Norman church and the medieval tower of St Peter's Church in the central part of the town where you can climb to the top of the tower and on a clear day you may even catch a glimpse of France.

The town has events throughout the year, Sandwich Food Fayre, Folk & Ale Festival, Arts Week and Le Weekend – a celebration of all things French, Sandwich Salutes a 1940's get together which the whole town participate in dressing up and many events and stalls. For the golfers there is nearby championship courses and lakes for fishing.

In the town there is various shops, coffee bars, a Co-op supermarket, local doctors, restaurants, takeaways including a great fish & chip shop, pubs and a cinema which dates from the 1930's showing all the latest films. Age Concern have a wealth of services including hairdressers, café, community events, advice & guidance and is a warm welcoming place.

Fordwich Place Development Manager is on hand 4 mornings per week 8am -12.30pm to support the owners and look after all the communal repairs.

You will find the flats have an emergency Careline system installed, monitored by the Development Manager during working hours stated, and when they are not on site our Careline team is available 24 hours, 365 days a year. Our sophisticated fire and smoke detection systems throughout both the flats and communal areas provides unrivalled peace of mind.

There is a small communal laundry at the rear of our middle block of flats, next to the Development manager's office.

You will often encounter ducks visiting our communal gardens, alongside squirrels and hedgehogs and many different birds. Many of the owners also, with permission from the Development Manager, tender to certain parts of the garden growing their own plants.

Fordwich Place is managed by the award winning Churchill Estates Management, working closely with Churchill Living and Churchill Estates Management to maintain the highest standards of maintenance and service.

Fordwich Place accepts residents over the age of 55.
