Yarrell Croft

Yarrell Croft is a peaceful, modern residential cul-de-sac located in Pennington, a highly desirable suburb of Lymington on the edge of the New Forest in Hampshire. It is known for its quiet environment and close proximity to both the coast and essential village amenities.

The Georgian market town of Lymington is just over a mile away (approx. 1.5 miles), offering a wider range of high street shops, coastal dining, and world-renowned sailing marinas. Lymington Town railway station is located 1.4 miles away, providing easy links via Brockenhurst to the rest of the UK.

Local shopping convenience includes Tesco South, Morrisons Daily, Waitrose Lymington, M&S Lymington, Cook Lymington.

In the heart of Lymington town, within easy reach of the High Street offers a wide range of shops and boutiques and hosts a traditional weekly street market which attracts visitors from near and far to shop for local fine foods, crafts, jewellery and antiques. St Barbe Museum and Art Gallery is the focal point for arts and heritage and explores the history of Lymington and the New Forest coast with bespoke exhibitions from national galleries throughout the year. The pretty cobbled streets of the old town lead to The Quay where you can watch the luxury yachts and fishing boats come and go or take a cruise along the river.

Situated on the bank of the Lymington River, Lymington is also a major yachting centre with three marinas and two sailing clubs and is also home to the Royal Lymington Yacht Club. The nearby Open Air Sea Water Baths are the oldest in the UK and a popular location for swimming during the summer months with views across to the Isle of Wight.
